

unity & diversity
COMMITTEE

City of Longview
Partners in Prevention

*U*NITY & *D*IVERSITY *C*OMMITTEE

2023 Unity Honors Award Nomination Form

The Unity Honors is a life time achievement award that pays homage to individuals in the community who have demonstrated leadership in the promotion of harmony, understanding, and social justice. Nominees must be individuals who work and/or live (past or present) in the Greater Longview Area.

Please complete the following form and provide any attachments you choose. Quality of the nomination is more important than quantity, so duplicates submitted for the same nominee may not influence the selection process.

Nomination Deadline is October 28, 2022

2023 Unity Honors Nominee Form

1. Nominee Name: _____
(First) (Last)

Address: _____

Contact number: _____

Email Address: _____

2. Please describe why you feel the nominee is deserving of the Unity Honors Award? This description should include how the nominee has helped build inclusive relationships in the community. This may be through volunteer, civic, community, church, or other related activities. Include specific examples. * (The individual does not have to be a high visibility person, but one who has made a great impact in the community by promoting unity and mobilizing change for the greater good of the Greater Longview Area.)

Submitted by: _____

Contact Information: _____

Nomination Deadline is October 28, 2022

Unity Award Nominees Sought

The Unity and Diversity Committee seeks nominations for two individuals to be honored at its 19th Annual Unity Honors Banquet on February 15, 2023.

Past recipients of the award are persons who have stood against prejudice and discrimination, while demonstrating leadership in promoting racial harmony and understanding in the Longview community.

The past recipients of the award are:

- 2005: Dr. I.E. Willis and A. M. “Monk” Willis, Jr.
- 2006: James Johnson and the Rev Bill O’Neal
- 2007: Jim Elam and Charles Newhouse
- 2008: Alice Day and Lola Moore
- 2009: Sidney Bell Willis and Steve Crane
- 2010: Clarence Bailey and Mickey Melton
- 2011: Dr. Bob Terrell, Anna Walker, and Rev. Homer Rockmore
- 2012: Senator Jack Strong and Dr. Robert Harper
- 2013: Andrea Mayo and Cissy Ward
- 2014: Alyce Maxey and Lyndell McAllister
- 2015: Armatha Banks, Rev. Bob Bruce, and Rev. Darnell Thomas
- 2016: Dorothy Walker and Reverend JD Palmer
- 2017: Evalonia Barrett Bolton and Judge William K “Bill” Stoudt
- 2018: Regina Wayne and Rev. Lewis Thompson, Jr.
- 2019: LaDelle Kay and Kasha Williams
- 2020: Johnnie Johnson and Sally Gossett Barron
- 2021: ShaLonda Adams and Carroll Greenwaldt
- 2022: NaTusha Howard and Jerry Gardner

Nomination forms can be emailed to pjimenez@longviewtexas.gov or picked up and dropped off at the following locations:

- City of Longview, Partners in Prevention Office, 140 E. Tyler Street, 4th Floor
- Longview Public Library, 222 W. Cotton

Nominations must be received no later than October 28, 2022

Partners in Prevention

P.O. Box 1952

Longview, TX, 75606

* 903-237-1019 * 903-237-1107 (Fax)
